

This statement is made on behalf of Leeds Commercial Limited T/A LC Vehicle Hire (LCVH). This statement relates to the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and to actions and activities during the year 1st January 2026 to 31st December 2026.

Modern slavery is a crime and a gross violation of fundamental human rights. It takes various forms, all of which have in common the deprivation of a person's liberty by another in order to exploit them for personal or commercial gain.

LCVH have a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and are fully committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in our corporate activities.

We are also committed to ensuring there is transparency in our own business and in our approach to tackling modern slavery throughout our supply chains, consistent with our disclosure obligations under the Modern Slavery Act 2015. We all have a responsibility to be alert to the risks, however small, in our business and in the wider supply chain.

This statement sets out LCVH's actions to understand all potential modern slavery risks related to business and to ensure steps are maintained to prevent slavery and human trafficking.

Our Policy on Slavery and Human Trafficking

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chains or in any part of our business.

Our Policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chains.

Our Supply Chains and Supplier Adherence to Our Values

The relationship with all our suppliers has been established over a number of years and is built upon mutually beneficial factors, where we have close and personal links and contact with the owners or directors, reflecting the fact that we partner with small, medium and large sized operations as part of our supply network.

As and when we have new suppliers come on-board we pre-qualify any new company through a series of due diligence checks, relating to company performance, HSEQ compliance and references from others to establish that they are suitable.

To date we have not been made aware of any human trafficking / slavery activities within the supply chain but if any were highlighted to us then we would act immediately in accordance with our legal and moral obligations. In respect of existing suppliers, the outcome of our due diligence allows us to take appropriate steps to manage any risk of Modern Slavery including reconsidering the continued relationship with those suppliers. In respect of prospective suppliers, the outcome of this due diligence informs our decision to include them in our supply chain and, if so, whether appropriate contractual protections are to be included in our agreements with those suppliers to manage any perceived risk of Modern Slavery.

Due Diligence Processes for Slavery and Human Trafficking

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we have in place systems to:

- Identify and assess potential risk areas when considering taking on new suppliers and regularly review our existing supply chains.
- Mitigate the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains.
- Monitor potential risk areas in our supply chains.
- Protect whistle blowers.

Training

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking.

To maintain awareness and ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our business our Policy is incorporated into our Employee Handbook and is available on the company website.
